

YOUNG AGAIN EP

BROKEN CORNERS

I always, I always wanted to know you Under city lights I will hold you Walking these streets just like friends

And there was this one time back in November
Your standing holding my sweater
I touched your face with my hand

The fears we know of growing old Letting go in the unknown
Were taking down every wall
Holding on to what we call a home with you I'll make it through True and true
I want to be with you now

As were walking down the street
Broken corners of you and me
But in this world love is free
But you gotta
Oh you've gotta believe

In the city the buildings they tower above us
Where birds fly above the street dust
I'm feeling small tenth avenue

In Dumbo over the East where I wanna go
In the shadows of bridges and let go
On a bench into the night

And when we leave and what we see Manhattan rising from the sea

Underneath the sound Cars Brooklyn bound will be home late but I can't wait to hold your hands and be alone with you

As were walking down the street
Broken corners of you and me

But in this world love is free
But you gotta
Oh you've gotta believe

As were walking down the street
Broken corners of you and me

But in this world our love is free
But you gotta
Oh you've gotta believe

As were walking down the street
Broken corners of you and me

But in this world our love is free
But you gotta

PERISCOPE

Well there I lie awake with you it's nothing new like an old cartoon Flikering on the TV
Through a periscope I see our lives
In my eyes I know well be alright

Because I've been waiting on you
All my life all my life
I've been frustrated and blue
I never knew
I never knew
how much I loved you
How much I love you

Three words I held on to
I Love You
Please see me through when the world is getting me down

And when the summer sun beams down on us broken up with rust with all our trust
Will let go
Will let go

There will come a time looking down the line Truth will be hard to find
But don't be afraid these troubles won't stay the same
Will be ok

Because I've been waiting on you
All my life
All my life
I've been frustrated and blue
I never knew
I never knew
No

Because I've been waiting on you
All my life
All my life

I've been frustrated and blue
I never knew
I never knew
How much I love you

Ooooooooooooooooooh
Ooooooooooooooooooh
Ooooooooooooooooooh

Because I've been waiting on you
All my life
All my life

I've been frustrated and blue
I never knew
I never knew

Because I've been waiting on you
All my life
All my life

I've been frustrated and blue
I never knew
I never knew

How much I loved you
How much I love you

GRASSHOPPER HILL

There is a place we used to go Sunswept fields
Where wild grasses grow

We would sit and plan our lives
These summer days
And foggy nights

The old creek would fill with rain
We made a boat
And watched it float away

On Grasshopper hill
Just you and me
On Grasshopper hill
That's where we'll be

Where has the time
Gone, gone, gone
I hope it's not too late
I want to sing you this song
About the days
I remember them still
About the days being kids

As the sun waned in the sky
Carried away
By the fireflies

We would kick off our old shoes
Feel the rough grass
And evening dew

I still remember when you said
If we get lost

This hill will be my bed

Up on the hill
That's where I'll be
On Grasshopper hill
You can find me

Where has the time
Gone, gone, gone
I hope it's not too late
About the days
I remember them still
On Grasshopper Hill

About the days being kids

ROLL ALONG

There are so many things I'd like to say
I may have screwed up
But I did it my own way

The life I live it passes in front of me know one every said this would be easy cause I feel like I wrote the end of this song

If I wait to long, it will all be gone

Will just roll along
Will just roll along
Will just roll along

Will just roll along

I know in life there are a few second chances Growing up fast
Hitting the gas
Evening romances
The world around me begins to fall
I take my hands it's one last grab at it all

cause I feel like I wrote the end of this song

The world I knew it changed in front of me
When she came along so sweetly
These plans I made who needs them
Anyway

Cause I feel like I wrote the end of this song

Cause I feel like I wrote the end of this song

Whoaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa

Whoaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa
Ohhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh
Whoaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa

Will just roll along

Will just roll along

Will just roll along

Will just roll along

Oooooooooohhh
Will just roll along

Oooooooooohhh
Will just roll along

Oooooohoooohh
Will just roll along

Oooooooooohhh
Will just roll along
Will just roll along

YOUNG AGAIN

When I was a young boy
I had a vision

Dreams that would become of me
My late night adventures
My sweet youth surrender Learning who I'd rather be Well I held on to my Grandpas clock gave it all that I had

Life was an ocean
I was the captain
Set on a journey to sea

Cause I always wanted to be old now that I am older I want to be young
again

Cause I always wanted to be old
again

Now that I am older
I'm not too much stronger
And there are scenes I want to see Go dancing in Nashville and Backpack the Rockies
Hold on to everything Fall asleep with New York City while Cali is calling my name

When North Carolina meets old West Virginia
Atlanta please hold my hand

again

Cause I always wanted to be old
again

Well there was a time when I was much younger but now that's well behind me

Cause years turn to days and days turn to hours lines in the reflections I see on the South Shore outside Chicago the reality starts to creep in now that I am older the magic glows lower the old boat I struggle to see

Cause I always
again

Cause I always wanted to be old
again

One fourth of July it all sank in The world that I'd been living in It washed up there Right on the Shore

The world I'd seen I wanted nothing more Than to take the hand of Miss Liberty and dance one last dance just here and me We'll make our footsteps on the shore all I cared was to have one moment more

again

Cause I always wanted to be old
again
